NOTES

1. Under section 61 of the Real Estate Agents Act 2008 a licensee (an individual or a company) may voluntarily surrender a licence by written notice to the Registrar
2. The Registrar will cancel the licence and record the cancellation in the register. The effective date of cancellation is the date on which the Registrar records the cancellation in the register
3. Cancellation means that a person or company can no longer carry out real estate agency work
4. If you are an individual surrendering your own individual agent's, branch manager's or salesperson's licence, sign in Box 6. (You do not need to sign the declaration in Box 7.)

5. If you are making this request in respect of an agent's licence held by a company, you must identify your position in the company and sign the declaration in Box 7
6. Surrender of a licence does not affect a licensee's liability to pay any fees or other money in accordance with the requirements of the Real Estate
7. Agents Act 2008, perform any obligation under that Act, or affect a licensee's liability for any act done or default made before the date on which the licence ceased to have effect.
8. If you operated a trust account please ensure the trust account is closed and your auditor notified
9. Any fees paid are non-refundable.
